

Release of Liability, Privacy and Responsibility Statements for the University of Regina Students' Union (URSU) Locker Rental Program

IN CONSIDERATION FOR BEING GRANTED THE RIGHT AND PRIVILEGE TO RENT A LOCKER FROM THE UNIVERSITY OF REGINA STUDENTS' UNION (URSU) THE UNDERSIGNED HEREBY ACKNOWLEDGES AND AGREES AS FOLLOWS:

- a) I assume responsibility for securing the locker by keeping it closed and locked when not in use; all responsibilities in keeping the combination number secret; all responsibilities involving any damage or vandalism to the locker or its lock, and stolen or lost items;
- b) I agree that URSU and the University of Regina are not liable for any of the aforementioned responsibilities;
- c) I agree that rental of a locker from URSU does not confer upon me any right or entitlement to use or possess the locker and the lock in any manner other than as specifically provided for in the URSU Locker Rental Policy;
- d) I agree not to store anything that may emit odors, secrete liquids or be dangerous in nature;
- e) I agree that the lock and locker are non-transferable;
- f) I agree that URSU is not liable or responsible for any lost or stolen items, damage to the locker or lock or any other incident which may cause harm or damage to the locker, its contents, the lock, or to me. I assume all liability for such issues;
- g) URSU will protect all private information given in order to rent a locker, such as name, phone number and e-mail address, but maintains the right to share that information with Campus Security or any authorized law enforcement agency;
- h) URSU maintains the right to issue warnings and/or enter any locker after complaints from other University students, faculty or employees should the locker emit odors, secrete liquids, be thought to contain dangerous items or if there is any other serious concern, as determined by URSU.
- i) URSU maintains the right to allow Campus Security or an authorized law enforcement agency access to ANY LOCKER AT ANY TIME WITHOUT THE RENTER PRESENT, provided that they have a documented incident report or a lawful warrant requires opening the locker. An URSU representative MUST be present when Campus Security or an authorized law enforcement agency opens the locker. Notification will be given to the Renter when URSU enters a locker without the Renter present.
- j) URSU maintains the right to remove and replace the lock as per the URSU Locker Rental Policy;
- k) I MUST REMOVE ALL CONTENTS AND RETURN THE LOCK BY APRIL 30, 2010, to the URSU Front Desk (RC 221). Should I fail to do so, I will lose my deposit and be subject to a five dollar ($5.00) pick-up fee for the locker contents as per the URSU Locker Rental Policy.
- l) THE LOCK DEPOSIT WILL ONLY BE RETURNED IF the lock is returned undamaged before April 30, 2010; the locker is undamaged; the locker contents have been emptied; the person who signs this document returns the lock; no violations have been made. THERE WILL BE ABSOLUTELY NO REFUNDS ON LOCKERS AT ANY TIME.
- m) I certify I have read this document and the URSU Locker Rental Policy, and I fully understand and agree to the content of each document. I also agree and am aware that this is a release of liability and a contract, that I sign it of my own free will, and that the URSU Locker Rental Policy forms part of the terms of this contract.
